MOORE, CHARLES

A telegram was received in Safford last Tuesday, stating that Chas. Moore had died in Tombstone that morning, of pneumonia. Mr. Moore left here about ten days ago in the company with J. V. Vickers, for Tombstone. He was not well when he started, and on his arrival there word was received here that he had contracted pneumonia. He grew steadily worse until death relived him. Chas. Moore was one of the best known men in Safford. He has had charge of the Chiricahua ranches for a number of years. He was highly respected by all who know him. He was an Englishman by birth, and has some very wealthy people in that country, but has no relatives in America. He was thoroughly ed{illegible}.
