Part I - LORENZO BACA SANCHEZ AND JUANA MARIA SEDILLOS BACA

As a tribute to the heritage and pioneering spirit of both Lorenzo Baca Sanchez and Juana Maria Sedillos Baca, we have compiled a family history record. While it is difficult to establish total accuracy with such a legacy over a period of time exceeding 150 years, we have recorded information that we have both researched and received from family and formal record sources.

Lorenzo Sanchez was born to Jose Pedro Baca and Guadalupe Chavez, August 8, 1835 in Socorro, New Mexico. It is our understanding that his parents were killed (perhaps by an Indian attack) and that young Lorenzo was raised by Jose Ramon Sanchez and Manuela Tapia. Our records do not have any information of his early childhood activities in the Socorro area. The San Miguel Catholic Church, in Belen, (403 El Camino Real N.W., Socorro, New Mexico) has the most complete records of the early years of family church records. The San Miguel Church performed marriage and baptism ordinances for most of the family members beginning about 1835.

Lorenzo Sanchez married Juana Maria Sedillos Baca on August 10, 1856, Socorro, New Mexico. Juana Maria was born to Maria Trinidad Sedillos, February 5, 1840, Socorro, New Mexico. Maria Trinidad later married Juan Francisco Baca, born about 1788. There were 14 known children born to the union of Lorenzo and Juana Maria Baca Sanchez. These children are:

1. Leonides Sanchez - May 29, 1858
2. Leonicia De Los Dolores Sanchez - October 9, 1859
3. Doloridas Sanchez - About 1859
4. Ricardo Sanchez - April 23, 1861
5. Daniel Sanchez - January 17, 1863
6. Melquesidec Sanchez - About 1865
7. Maria Dina Sanchez - March 1, 1868
8. Maria Floripa Sanchez - Chr. October 1, 1871
9. Abel Sanchez - February 6, 1872

10. Adiel Sanchez - January 10, 1874
11. Ismael Sanchez - About 1876 (age 4, 1880 census)
12. Esaios Sanchez - About 1878 (age 2, 1880 census)
13. Jeremiah Sanchez - November 1879 (age 7 mos., 1880 census)
14. Edisa Sanchez - August 1880

Their early married years were spent in Santa Barbara, a tiny village between Las Cruces and Socorro, New Mexico. Family discussion understands that Lorenzo, along with about fifteen or sixteen other friends and families, moved to the San Jose area of Safford, Graham Co., Arizona sometime in 1879. Their move was under the knowledge that many United States land grants were available in the Gila River valley. As they left Santa Barbara, they traveled following the Gila River through New Mexico and into Arizona. They arrived in the Gila or Safford Valley during the same year. The area settled by Lorenzo and Juanita Sanchez is near present day San Jose, Arizona and later became known as Sanchez, Arizona. A formal description (although partially eligible) of the settlement reads as follows:

North half of the southeast quarter and then to the southeast quarter of section thirty five in township six ??? East of Gila and Salt River meridian territory containing 136 acres -- ----.

This description of Sanchez places its location along the Gila River just North and East of Safford, Arizona. A significant contribution to any settlement is a church and/or schoolhouse. Lorenzo constructed three church/schoolhouses over a period of many years. The first church/schoolhouse was a small rock building atop a knoll. It only served as a temporary location until a larger adobe structure was built about 1896. About 33 years later (1929), an even larger wood framed church/schoolhouse was constructed. This final building remained in use until 1951. This school house remains standing today - 1996. The settlement was known for the respect and heritage carried forward through Lorenzo and Juanita Baca Sanchez and their hard-working family.

The fertile farming soil alongside the Gila River was the beginning of a rich crop of corn and pumpkins. The stalwart sons of Lorenzo and Juanita, worked hard alongside their father during these early years to help establish their family. The sons also helped care for herds of sheep that belonged to I.E. Solomon in the hills north of the Gila River. Soon after arriving, they came to know Geronimo and other Apache leaders. Even today, pits may be found on top bluffs surrounding the ranch where rocks were heated to prepare "mescal", the Apache's staff of life.

For some unknown reason, Lorenzo returned to New Mexico in 1887. Their stay was short, and they returned to the ranch, on the Gila River, Arizona, in 1889. During this two-year period in New Mexico, Lorenzo, worked in the Santa Rita, Silver City, New Mexico mines.

The Civil War also touched the life of Lorenzo Sanchez. As a Civil War veteran (Union), age 27, he was a soldier during the Val Verde battle on the Rio Grande River. He served as a private in Company E of the 2nd Regiment of the New Mexico Volunteers. His Muster-in record was dated July 27, 1861 - Muster-out roll was dated December 18, 1861. A documented story of his service is recorded through the Department of Interior, Pension application. The January 18, 1895 recording, issued to the District Attorney (Wiley E. Jones), requesting disability compensation, is as follows:

"I have known the above named applicant, Lorenzo Sanchez some time prior to the year 1860 and ever since said date. I well remember the circumstance of his injury received in 1863 at Fort Apache, Arizona Territory as it now is. The injury occurred while loading a wagon. Since then, his left clavicle broken by an accident at the time of loading said wood by falling from the top of a loaded wagon.

Since then, in later years he have become unable to perform manual labor for the necessities of life, wholly by being incapacitated on account of said injury. He has always been a sober and industrious man with no vicious or immoral habits whatever and I can say most positively that his present disability is in no way or in any degree to be attributed to vicious or immoral habits. Said applicant is dependent upon his own labor for support; said injury, with his advanced years renders him disabled to acquire a livelihood”.

As the family grew and prospered, the sons began families of their own. Located close by, in surrounding hill sites, were the families of Leonides, Ricardo, Daniel, and Moses, soon to be joined by the younger brothers as they married and started families of their own. For a time, Ricardo Sanchez, operated a village store and served as the postmaster (September 23, 1901 - September 27, 1902). Father Lorenzo passed away on December 20, 1899. Mama Juanita lived on until January 17, 1915. The family history continues over the next hundred years and includes the lives of hundreds of Sanchez descendants located throughout the many states and countries. As relatives ponder the significance of their lives, they hold in respect the fortitude and integrity of their great heritage through Lorenzo Baca Sanchez and Juana Maria Baca Sanchez.
